

Launch event of 'Mothers for a Progressive Alliance'

Mothers for a Progressive Alliance

'Mothers for a Progressive Alliance' is being launched by Compass and Jane Chelliah, the blogger 'ambitiousmamas', to push for those issues that affect mothers to be adopted as a cross-party effort. 'Mothers for a Progressive Alliance' will put forward issue areas and make a case using Matricentrism principles as to why mothers need a political discourse that represents their interests.

This event will be chaired by Frances Foley from Compass.

SPEAKERS:

Dr Mark Boden,
Male feminist and Marxist scholar.

Kirsten Bayes,
Network speaker with the Campaign Against the Arms Trade (CAAT)

Christine El Issa,
Activist against racism

Claire Hobson,
Former head of UK Trade & Investment France and currently working in the city as head of global investment

Jane Chelliah,
On how Matricentric policies can benefit from a progressive alliance

DATE AND TIME

Sat 18 November 2017
11:00 – 13:00 GMT

LOCATION

Doreen Ramsey Court
Number 108, The Cut
Waterloo
London
SE1 8LN
United Kingdom

Lunch will be provided. Children very welcome. Disability access with a wheelchair ramp. Please email Jane Chelliah at ambitiousmamas@gmail.com as confirmation that you are attending otherwise just turn up on the day.